Dear Ms. Hafeman:

The following training materials and program that you submitted to us have been reviewed and approved in accordance with the "Procedures For Approving Food Safety Training Materials and Programs".

Training materials submitted included:

1. The "Food Safety Management Principles" booklet, published by Chadwick House Group Limited 2002, ISBN 1 902423 79 8
2. The Trainer Resource Pack Food safety Manager consisting of three booklets;
  - a. Trainer Guide & Session Notes
  - b. Activities
  - c. Images (with image presentation CD)

Published by Chadwick House Group Limited 2002, ISBN 1 904306 19 5

The National Registry of Food Safety Professionals, (NRFSP), "Food Safety Manager Certification Exam" is the accredited program submitted as being used by NEHA Training, LLC.

It is my opinion that the training material is well illustrated, compact, and covers all points of the "Procedures For Approving Food Safety Training Materials and Programs". The Trainer Resource Packs, titled Images and Activities, correlate well with the training manual and are important tools that bring the training manual information into perspective.
